"WAXMAN ANNOUNCES ART COMPETITION"

Congressman Henry A. Waxman invites students attending high schools located within the 24th Congressional District to participate in "An Artistic Discovery," the nationwide Congressional Art Competition for high school students. Rep. Waxman said, "I am pleased to sponsor this art competition to celebrate and applaud the artistic talents of our high school students."

A panel of judges from local community arts organizations will choose one entry to represent the 24th District in a special exhibition in the United States Capitol in Washington, D.C. Each high school may submit as many as three entries for the local competition. Any student attending the 24th District high schools is eligible to participate.

Artwork must be two-dimensional, no larger than 30 inches by 30 inches (unframed), and within the following categories: Paintings--oil, acrylics, etc.; Drawings, Watercolors, and Pastels; Collages; Prints--lithographs, silk screens, monotypes, woodcuts, and intaglio methods. The artwork may have been produced at any time. Final decision regarding suitability for exhibition in the Capitol shall rest within the discretion of a panel of qualified persons chaired by the Architect of the Capitol.

A color slide of each entry must be submitted by May 16, 1983. Please contact the faculty of your high school's art department for further information and assistance.
